

HIPAA and Breach Notification

Breach Notification Rule and PHI

NEW!

For all healthcare workers - nurses, physicians and administrative staff.

The Health Information Technology for Clinical Health Act (HITECH) is now in force. It significantly strengthens enforcement of the HIPAA rules.

It also requires employers to train employees about the HITECH Act and reporting security breaches.

Content:

- Definition of PHI.
- Reporting security breaches under HITECH.
- Precautions with electronic information.
- Recognizing malicious software.

Employees learn to protect passwords.

An unauthorized person is caught reading PHI.

Federal rules now require that employees be trained to report breaches of protected health information (PHI).

§ 164.53

(b)(1) Standard: Training. A covered entity must train all members of its workforce on the policies and procedures with respect to protected health information required by this subpart.

Visually rich training grabs employee attention.

Includes a Resource CD with reference material and test.
